When it comes to financial aid for college, there's something for everyone, regardless of your age, income, grades, or immigration status.

High school seniors, get help at a Cash for College Workshop and you could cash in on an extra $1,000 scholarship.

All you have to do is bring financial documents, such as:

- Your and your parents' Federal income tax returns from 2006 (if filed)
- Your and your parents' W-2 Forms, pay check stubs or any records of earned income
- Current bank statements and records of stocks, bonds, or other investments

So, apply for a CalGrant- it's your ticket to success.
